

*"This is what I seek; this is what I wish;
this is what I desire with all my heart."
What in your life makes you feel this way?*

Have you a story of a time when the stranger or someone unwelcome to you revealed the face of God?

Can you share one of the times when God has felt very present to you?

Can you share a story from a time when you experienced the power of God's grace to do something "beyond anything you could have asked or imagined"?

How have you been blessed by concern for others who may be different from you?
